Beatriz Martín Cabero	Spain	Bzmartin22@gmail.com	Beatriz Martín Cabrero. Soy psicóloga clínica y trabajo desde el 2001 en la red de salud pública. La certificación en Psicoterapia Sensoriomotriz (2015) me permitió integrar en profundidad el modelo y mis experiencias anteriores (otras técnicas corporales como bioenergética y danza-movimiento-terapia, y el modelo de Psicoterapia Integrativa del Dr. Erskine, en el que me certifiqué en el 2011). Desde hace 17 años trabajo en un hospital general. Realizo psicoterapia de las heridas emocionales y traumas que se originan o disparan ante la pérdida de salud y tratamientos médicos. Soy docente y tutora de residentes y alumnos de grado, e imparto cursos de habilidades de comunicación y gestión emocional para profesionales.
Rita Hassan Parker, DR	UK	E: ritahassanparker@gmail.com	I am a clinical psychologist, working primarily in NHS settings across. 10 years offering outreach services and DBT to adolescents who experience emotion regulation, identity, and self-harm issues, and their families. The last 4 years, primarily working with adults presenting with early childhood trauma. I have an emerging private clinic also. In addition to DBT, I am a certified sensorimotor therapist and trained in lifespan integration therapy. My therapeutic approach trusts in the system's innate capacity towards healing; in wisdom, spirit, and relational connection to transcend our limits and find self-compassion, clarity, flow. engaged in long-term outpatient therapy. In inpatient care, I provide supervision to clinicians who use Sensorimotor Psychotherapy in group format to help reduce suicidal ideation, self-harm behaviors, and emotional dysregulation. In outpatient work, I integrate Sensorimotor Psychotherapy with other trauma-focused modalities—including DBT, EMDR, Deep Brain Reorienting, and the Finding Solid Ground program—drawing on the latest neuroscience to support healing, regulation, and integration. I am currently offering individual and group consultation for clinicians seeking support in this work.

Tamara Perger, MSW, RSW	CAN – Ontario	P: 289-927-5364 E: tpvitalspirit@gmail.com	Tamara is a registered clinical social worker-psychotherapist in Ontario, Canada with over 27 years of experience. As a certified sensorimotor psychotherapist, she takes a strength-based holistic perspective to well-being which focuses on the mind-body-spirit connection as well as acknowledges the context for current day stress and the historical/ancestral/intergenerational roots of trauma. She believes in building practical skills to work with stress and trauma related experiences by blending in approaches of Mindful-Self Compassion, Narrative Therapy, Solution Focused Therapy, Emotional Freedom Technique, EMDR, and Sensorimotor Psychotherapy. As a yoga, qi gong and meditation teacher, her personhood and clinical therapy practice is informed by the principles of these wisdom traditions which honours the healing power and intelligence within.
Mirjam Plomp, Psychologist	NL	P: (+)31-634202547 E: mplomp@psychotherapieiden.nl W: www.psychotherapieiden.nl	As a psychotherapist I work in the Netherlands in a private practice where I work with adults with trauma and attachment-related problems. Since 2018 I am a certified sensorimotor psychotherapist. I assisted with the trauma course and currently with the advanced integrative training. In SP I have found the missing link in working with body and cognition/emotion. Central to me in working with SP is: Being curious about the development of the process, trusting the wisdom of the body, in a safe contact, based on fundamental principles.
Tammy Rasmussen, MSW, RSW	CAN - Toronto	P: 647-234-7979 E: trasmussen.msw@gmail.com	I primarily do individual therapy but I also facilitate trauma groups, including somatic focused groups, at the agency I work at part-time. In both my agency work, and in my private practice, I also utilize EMDR, some Energy Psychology, and work with parts of self and structural dissociation. I am open to individual and small group consultation and can offer a sliding scale.

Giulio Venturi	Italy	P: +34622045554 E: giulio.venturi@yahoo.es W: www.solipsis.es	Soy psicoterapeuta Sensoriomotriz certificado en 2015, formación básica en EMDR y acreditación en Mindfulness (REBAP). Trabajo con adultos. Las áreas de enfoque incluyen trastornos relacionados con el trauma, ansiedad, trastornos del estado de ánimo, problemas relacionados con el apego/relaciones. Permaneciendo fiel a los principios de la Psicoterapia Sensoriomotriz, especialmente la organicidad y la no violencia, mi filosofía en la práctica clínica es acompañar y capacitar a mis clientes para que sientan el potencial sanador intrínseco en sí mismo.
Anneke Vinke, PhD	NL	E: training@adoptiepraktijk.nl W: www.adoptiepraktijk.nl	Anneke JG Vinke, PhD, is a registered Dutch Child and Adolescent psychologist (Dutch BIG register GZ-psychologist and Orthopedagoog Generalist). She graduated in 1991 from Radboud University in Nijmegen, then embarked on scientific research and worked simultaneously in private practice. After her PhD in intercountry adoptions in 1999 at Utrecht University she worked as an academic teacher, as researcher and as staff in child protection services. In 2006 she decided to return to clinical work and started her private practice, specializing in assessments and treatment of intercountry adoptees of all ages. Her journey of finding the right treatment for these often early traumatized clients, led her to EMDR, Theraplay, Dyadic Developmental Psychotherapy, the Neurosequential Model of Therapeutics and Sensorimotor Psychotherapy, in all of which she sought training and supervision. The last decade the focus in all her work has shifted to the body and body based interventions. In her clinical work she combines elements of all approaches she was trained in, but ever since she certified in Sensorimotor, this approach is in the lead. She has a combined practice with children, youth,
